C. Extended Year Activities

BE IT RESOLVED: that permission be granted for Special Services to conduct the following activities in the Mandated Extended School Year Program for special education students.

Participants:

- The number of students that will attend the mandated (ESY) Extended School Year Program will be determined following the Annual (IEP) Individualized Education Program Conferences.
- All supervisors, teachers, paraprofessionals, speech therapists, occupational therapists, physical therapists, social workers, nurses, guidance counselors, community school coordinator, attendance officer, and school law enforcement officers will participate and supervise these activities.

Activities:

- Clay Studio- July 9, 10, 16, 17, 23, 24, 30, 31, 2013: This activity will provide innovative learning resources that will integrate fine and gross motor skills into the curriculum. It will allow the students to explore the arts through creative hands-on art educational activities. Cost: $1,520.00
All expenses are encumbered for this purpose in IDEA.

Extended Year Activities, cont.

- Jubilee Children’s Entertainment- July 12, 2013: This activity will provide children with an ultimate learning experience. Jubilee inspires, develops, and empowers children with creative and educational performances while instilling strong moral character. This will empower them to influence their environment, build self-esteem and become positive role-models in the community. Cost: $700.00
All expenses are encumbered for this purpose in IDEA.
- Dovetail Presentation – July 19, 2013: This activity will teach students “Character Education” and provide them with an opportunity to use their own imagination. The students will discover that all things are not as they appear because science is based on facts and remain constant, except when magic is involved.
Cost: $500.00
All expenses are encumbered for this program in IDEA.
- Police Athletic League (PAL) Dance Program- August 1, 2013: This program will provide an opportunity for students to develop confidence, physical awareness, and communication in the field of dance. The students will learn to build life skills through educational fun in the arts.
Cost: Provided at no expense to the Board of Education.
- Fun Day- August 2, 2013: This activity will bring classroom activities into real life situations that promote social interaction and fine/gross motor skills. Fun Day will provide apparatus that will enhance muscle coordination and provide opportunities for spontaneous social interaction in various situations.
Cost: Provided at no expense to the Board of Education.
- ESY Expo- August 6, 2013: This program will provide an opportunity for students and staff to demonstrate the academic, social, and behavioral progress to parents, board members, administrators, and the community.
Cost: Provided at no expense to the Board of Education.

All expenses are encumbered for this purpose in IDEA.
