BE IT RESOLVED: that permission be granted for Dr. Meislich Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Cooper Medical School of Rowan University and pediatric residents to provide a variety of services to Camden City Public Schools.

1. Classroom visitations- Over the years we have had pediatric residents visit classrooms and speak to the children on a variety of topics. Our residents can give health related talks that coordinate with the science and or health curriculum already in place in the schools.
2. Collaboration with the school nurse- the residents meet with the school nurse and speak with her/him about some of the health concerns in the children who attend the school-- (ex. obesity, lack of physical activity, poor nutrition) and how they could help alleviate some of these problems. Our residents can also help the school nurse with vision and hearing screenings; they can review immunization records, they can help track growth and BMI changes.
3. IEP/504 meetings- The residents are willing to participate in social work/nurse meetings where students with specific health and/or psychological issues are reviewed. The residents provide some assistance at these meetings. Our residents may be able to help provide appropriate referrals to Cooper physicians and or programs.
4. Residents may also provide information about community events from Cooper that would benefit the neighborhood in promoting healthy lifestyles (ex. information about purchasing fresh vegetables and fruits from a farmer's market operating out of Cooper Hospital). Our residents can also help the school nurse with vision and hearing screenings; they can review immunization records, they can help track growth and BMI changes.
5. Our residents have been a part of "ask the doctor" after school sessions for interested parents.
6. Some of the residents are foreign born and could speak to students about life growing up in another country. They can speak to the student's in middle and the high schools about test taking, studying and what it takes to get into medical school or college in general.
