Camden City Fall Sustainability Festival

Community event to celebrate the season with fun activities and resident services

WHAT: The City of Camden, Camden City School District, and Covanta, operator of the Camden Waste-to-Energy facility is sponsoring a fall sustainability festival. The festival will feature, not just fun fall activities, but also important resident services.

WHY: The Fall Sustainability Festival is an event for the Camden community to enjoy with families and friends. It includes important services that can conveniently be accessed in one place for the benefit of the community and the environment. The event will feature e-waste recycling for residents to drop off their old electronics, such as outdated cameras, VCRs, and more, as well as free mail-back envelopes for the safe disposal of unused medication. Other services include COVID-19 and flu vaccines, document shredding as well as a job fair with local businesses.

WHEN: Saturday, October 16, 2021
10:00am – 1:00pm

WHERE: Farnham Park
1648 Baird Blvd
