August 23, 2021, Camden, NJ—The Camden City School District, in partnership with the New Jersey Department of Health and Bell Rexall Pharmacy, is excited to announce upcoming free in-school COVID-19 vaccination clinics for all families of the Camden City School District, as well as for staff and residents of Camden. These clinics will offer the Pfizer, Moderna, and Johnson and Johnson vaccine to residents and employees ages 12 and older on-site at H.B. Wilson, Woodrow Wilson High School, Veterans Memorial Family School, Morgan Village Middle School, Davis Family School, Catto Family School, and Dudley Family School.

“We are appreciative of the continued partnership with the New Jersey Department of Health and Bell Rexall Pharmacy. After our first successful on-site vaccination day last month, we realized how comfortable our families felt when the vaccination clinics were hosted in our schools,” said Superintendent Katrina T. McCombs. “We will continue to provide our families with easy access to the vaccine in a familiar and comfortable environment.”
