Forest Hill	Field Trip - We Rock the Spectrum	It is recommended that Forest Hill Special Needs department attends We Rock the Spectrum in Audubon, NJ. This trip would be for our students to attend a safe and inclusive indoor sensory play center. This type of sensory experience allows them to learn self-regulation techniques and practice positive social interactions. This is aligned with our AYP goal related to Social Emotional Learning in terms of learning to identify our emotions and how to use coping skills to self-regulate when we might be feeling off: angry, sad, tired, frustrated, hyper, and so forth. Many of our students are non-verbal and a trip that allows them access to different sensory experiences can help them learn to communicate in alternative ways about their needs. Teacher In Charge: Nicole Buttery Teachers:            Lauren Bilo            Shannon Gross            Melissa Rodriguez            Maureen Maginnis-Graves Admission: No cost to the board            Transportation: TBD Submitted by: Karen Holmes, Secretary Approved by: Mr. Darrell Staton, Acting Principal
