MEDIA ADVISORY - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Superintendent McCombs Goes Door-to-Door to Inform Families About Preschool Spring Registration

Superintendent McCombs and members of the District's Office of Early Childhood plan on hitting the Branch Village Housing Development located in the Centerville section of Camden to speak with families about the benefits of early childhood education

Camden, NJ, May 4, 2022 – State District Superintendent Katrina T. McCombs will be visiting the Branch Village Housing Development area to raise awareness about the importance of enrolling 3- and 4-year olds into preschool programs. Superintendent McCombs along with Advisory Board Members, and staff from the Office of Early Childhood Education plan to go door to door in an effort to inform residents about how to register for the District's free, high-quality preschool program.

The Office of Early Childhood Education looks to achieve 100 percent enrollment this fall. Superintendent McCombs and Ms. Markeeta Nesmith, Director of the Office of Early Childhood Education, will speak with residents regarding the importance of enrolling in preschool.

Families can register any child that resides in the city, who will be 3-years- old on or before October 1, 2022 at onecamden.org or by calling (856) 536-3999.

For more information about preschool programs, families can call (856) 966-2342.
