Cooper University Health will have pediatric residents come into the Camden City Public School for a variety of purposes. Cooper pediatric residents would provide services to District students that may include the following: Classroom visitations - Pediatric Residents visit classrooms and presented various health care topics to students. Residents can also give health related talks that coordinate with the science and or health curriculum already in place in the schools. (VIRTUAL/REMOTE IF NECESSARY) Collaboration with School Nurses - Residents meet with the school nurse and health concerns in the children who attend their schools (ex. obesity, lack of physical activity, poor nutrition) and recommend resources and strategies to alleviate some of these problems. Pediatric Residents can also assist the school nurse with vision and hearing screenings, review immunization records, and help track growth and BMI changes. IEP/504 meetings. Pediatric Residents are willing to participate in social work/nurse meetings where students with specific health and/or psychological issues are reviewed. The residents provide some assistance at these meetings. Our residents may be able to provide appropriate referrals to Cooper physicians and or programs. Pediatric Residents may also provide information about community events sponsored by Cooper Health Systems that would benefit the neighborhood in promoting healthy lifestyles (ex. information about purchasing fresh vegetables and fruits from a farmer's market operating out of Cooper Hospital). The program will begin Oct 1, 2022 and continue until June 30, 2023. Free to District Recommended by: Renee Wickersty, Supervisor of Health Services Approved by: Dr. JoAnn Berkley, Deputy Chief, Student Supports
