

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:

Sheena Yera | 856-308-3061

Mike Neilon | 610-613-2664

Creative Arts High School celebrates Black History Month with Blacks in Wax Museum

Creative Arts HS students pay tribute to late Creative Arts Teacher Jamille Horne by continuing her Blacks in Wax Legacy

Camden, NJ – Creative Arts High School students honor unsung heroes by posing as past and present historical figures. Creative Arts - Blacks in Wax Museum is open to the public on Thursday, February 23rd from 12 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Camden High Campus - Creative Arts Wing.

The Blacks in Wax Museum is also a dedication to the late Creative Arts teacher, Ms. Jamillie Horne, who originally started the Blacks in Wax Museum.

Who: Creative Arts High School students

What: Jamille Horne's - Blacks in Wax Museum

When: Thursday, February 23, 2023, from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Where: Creative Arts High School | 1700 Park Blvd. Camden

###

