Camden City School District to host its 1st Inaugural Middle School Cheer Expo

Camden, NJ – On Wednesday, March 29th at the Eastside High School Gymnasium, the Camden City School District (CCSD) will be hosting its first inaugural middle school cheer expo.

The middle school cheerleading expo is an exciting event that brings together cheerleading teams from different schools to showcase their skills and routines. This competition provides students with the opportunity to develop their teamwork, coordination, and physical fitness while showing off their athletic abilities. The expo also encourages school spirit and creates a sense of community among students, parents, and faculty members. It is a thrilling experience that not only challenges the students but also inspires them to strive for their best.

The following schools will be competing in the cheer expo:

- Catto
- Camden Promise
- Davis
- Dudley
- H.B. Wilson
- Morgan Village

Special high school cheer performances by Camden High School and Eastside High School.
