Camden City School District celebrates “Dads/Role Models Take Your Child to School Day”

Dads “Walking (or Taking?) Their Kids to School Day” Celebrates the Importance of Parental Involvement in Education

CAMDEN, NJ – On Thursday, September 21st, Dudley Family School will host their annual "Dads/Role Models Take Your Child to School Day" from 8:30 - 9:30 am. Consistent with the district's attendance mission, research shows that children who have involved fathers tend to perform better academically, maintain improved attendance records, and experience enhanced emotional well-being.

When fathers actively participate in their children's school routines, it often leads to increased school attendance rates. This day serves as a reminder of the importance of regular school attendance in a child's educational journey. This event aims to highlight the crucial role fathers and father figures play in their children's education, emphasizing the positive impact their presence has on attendance and students' emotional well-being.

WHO: Principal Ruiz, Dudley staff, students and families

WHEN: Thursday, September 21, 2023 at 8:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

WHERE: Dudley Family School | 2250 Berwick Street in Camden

Visuals: The event will begin with a kick-off ceremony featuring guest speakers, including local community leaders and educational experts, who will discuss the importance of father involvement in education. Refreshments served for dads and students.
