partners with Covanta on MLK Day to distribute lunch to the Eastside community of Camden

Hot soup and sandwiches will be distributed to Dudley School Families

January 12, 2024 – In commemoration of Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Kappa Alpha Psi, in collaboration with Covanta, will be conducting a day of service to uplift the East Camden community. This meaningful event aims to honor Dr. King's legacy of service, equality, and community engagement.

Kappa Alpha Psi, a distinguished fraternity committed to community service, and Covanta, a leading sustainable waste management and energy company, are coming together to provide hot soup and sandwiches to families in need. The event will take place at Dudley Family School in East Camden, creating a welcoming environment for all community members.
