Camden City School District student gets a ride to school from Camden City Fire Department for winning the 2023-2024 “Fired Up for Literacy” Challenge

February 8, 2024 – Camden City School District is thrilled to announce H.B. Wilson student as the 2023-2024 “Fired Up for Literacy” challenge winner! “Fired Up for Literacy,” an annual reading contest tailored for scholars in grades 1-3, aims to foster a love for independent reading at home while enhancing students' reading stamina.

Liliana Lunsford's (2nd grader) commitment to literacy shone brightly as she diligently logged an impressive total of 1200 minutes of reading between January 3rd and February 1st. Her exceptional dedication and passion for reading has truly distinguished her in this year's competition.

In celebration of Liliana's remarkable accomplishment, the Camden City Fire Department will be honoring her by chauffeuring her to school on a fire truck, Thursday, February 8, 2024. Upon her arrival, her classmates and teachers will gather to extend a warm and enthusiastic welcome, cheering her on for extraordinary achievement.

Who: H.B. Wilson Family School students, staff and Camden City Fire Department

When: Thursday, February 8, 2024

Time: 9:00 a.m. (student is expected to arrive on a fire truck around 9:15 a.m.)
