CAMDEN SCHOOL BOARD ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY INFORMATION

July 22, 2024 – The Camden City School District has information available for citizens interested in running for the board of education.

The Camden City School District will have five (5) vacancies on November 5, 2024. The election will include three vacancies for a three-year term, one vacancy for an unexpired one-year term, and one vacancy for an unexpired two-year term.

A candidate must file a nominating petition with the county clerk for their name to appear on the ballot during the November Annual School Election. The deadline to submit the nominating petition is 4:00 p.m. on July 29, 2024. The election is scheduled for Tuesday, November 5, 2024.

Prospective school board candidates can download candidate information from the New Jersey School Boards Association's website at NJSBA School Board Candidate Kit. The School Board Candidate Kit includes information about nominating petitions, legal qualifications for school board candidacy, and the role of the school board member. Information about the New Jersey School Ethics Act and important dates in the school election process are also included.

"Running for the school board is a powerful way to shape our community's future," said Camden City School District State District Superintendent Katrina T. McCombs. "School board members influence policies that impact our children's education. We need dedicated leaders to ensure high-quality education for all students. Your involvement can make a significant difference."
