Camden City School District to host Back-to-School Kickoff and Community Farmers Market

Camden, NJ - The Camden City School District is excited to announce its annual Back-to-School Kickoff and Community Farmers Market, scheduled for Thursday, August 29, 2024, from 11am - 1pm at Eastside High School (Swingspace) located at 2800 Mickle Street. This event marks the official start of the 2024-2025 school year and is open to all students, families, and community members.

The Back-to-School Kickoff is designed to bring the entire Camden community together in celebration of the new school year. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet teachers, school staff, city and district leaders.

In addition to the kickoff festivities, the event will feature a Community Farmers Market, offering fresh, locally grown produce and other goods. This initiative supports the district's commitment to promoting health and wellness among students and families. The market will provide an excellent opportunity for families to stock up on nutritious food as they prepare for the new school year.
