

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS, FIVE BELOW TO BEGIN THEIR TWO-STOP BACK-TO-SCHOOL TIP-OFF AHEAD OF 2024-25 ACADEMIC SCHOOL YEAR

SELECT PHILADELPHIA 76ERS PLAYERS TO TAKE PART IN SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES, ENGAGE WITH STUDENTS IN Q&A SESSIONS

On Tuesday, Sept. 10, the Philadelphia 76ers and Five Below will team up to begin their Back-to-School Tip-Off at Thomas H. Dudley Family School in Camden, NJ at 1:30 p.m., part of their two-stop journey throughout the Camden and Philadelphia communities. The 76ers and Five Below will aim to generate both excitement and motivation through a welcome-back celebration and fun surprises for the students and teachers as they begin the 2024-25 academic school year. The team will conclude in Philadelphia on Thursday, Sept. 12, at Thomas Mifflin School.

A select 76ers player will join the students and teachers at each pep rally featuring appearances from Franklin, Squad 76, and the Stixers Sixers. In addition to the pep rally, the select 76ers player will participate in a question-and-answer session in front of the student body, providing advice on the upcoming school year and sharing some of his favorite memories when he was in school.

At the conclusion of each event, two select teachers at the school will be surprised with a $500 gift card for use at any Five Below location for their efforts going above and beyond in the classroom.
